A View from County Hall

Last week a shocking report on the health of farmers was brought to our Health and Wellbeing Board. Healthwatch North Yorkshire has kindly pulled out some of the findings which I thought was important to share with you and the Wolds farming community.

Struggling in silence: The hidden health crisis facing farmers

A new report from Healthwatch North Yorkshire has uncovered a growing healthcare crisis affecting farmers and rural communities across the county. Many are living with physical pain, mental strain, and increasing isolation—yet struggle to access the help they need due to long working hours, travel distances, and stigma around seeking support.

"Farmers are resilient, but they're not invincible," one farmer told Healthwatch.

With over 6,000 farms and 85% of the county classed as very rural, farming is essential to the local economy. But behind the resilience, 74% of farmers reported physical pain, 42% live with stress or anxiety, and 31% struggle with sleep. One said: "We feel cut off. There's no time to get help—and nowhere dose enough to go."

This isn't just a local issue—it's part of a national trend. Suicide rates among farmers remain among the highest of any profession and 95% of farmers under 40 affected by mental health. The report calls for urgent action: more mobile health clinics, flexible GP appointments that align with the farming calendar, better mental health support, and investment in local services that meet farmers where they are.

Thanks to your feedback, change is already happening. Health checks are being trialled at Selby and Hawes auction marts. GP practices such as Central Dales are responding to the findings. New community-based initiatives, including cancer screening buses and social prescribing support, are in development. Even local vets are helping signpost farmers to health services.

Healthwatch has shared the report with NHS leaders, rural charities, and North Yorkshire Council, which now plans to form a working group to improve rural healthcare. This is just the start—but real progress is being made.

Read the full report and recommendations at: HealthwatchNorthYorkshire.co.uk

Healthwatch North Yorkshire is the independent champion for people who use health and social care services. Healthwatch listen to your experiences—good or bad—and use your anonymous feedback to help improve care across the county. What you tell them won't affect your treatment, and they don't deal with individual complaints or give medical advice. But if you want to say thank you to a service that's done well, or highlight where things need to change, they will make sure the right people hear it. Healthwatch also help people find clear, reliable information so they can understand their options and make informed decisions about their care.

I do hope that sharing this article will help farmers across the Wolds feel that they are not alone with their issues.

ST. ANDREW'S CHURCH, WEAVERTHORPE

SPONSOR A DAY

Dear Resident

The church of St. Andrew at Weaverthorpe has been a place of worship and celebration since the 12th century. Today it has services monthly, hosts baptisms, weddings and funerals and also stages special services and exhibitions for the community. As with most ancient buildings there is a cost for upkeep of the church, currently £15 a day for St. Andrew's.

We are writing to ask if you would like to sponsor a day in the life of this church by choosing a date of significance to you and your family. There is a book in the church and on the date you choose we will write your name and anything you would like to say about this special day. This is for families and individuals.

For each entry we would ask for a donation of £15, once per year, by standing order to St. Andrew's Church. Please email jemasonuk@yahoo.co.uk or telephone 01944 735235/07702192001 for further information. Please return the slip below to jemasonuk@yahoo.co.uk or post to Mrs J. Mason, Gara Croft, Weaverthorpe, Malton YO17 5ER. (PCC representative)

Please help us to continue to be able to worship and celebrate at St. Andrew's church for many years to come.

Kind regards

St. Andrew's PCC (parochial church council)

LIFE in full Bloom: A May Morning to Remember

May's LIFE (Luttons is for Everyone) Coffee Morning brought a wonderful extra treat this month, with a vibrant Craft and Plant Fair adding colour and charm to the occasion. Held under bright skies, the morning offered visitors the chance to browse a delightful variety of handmade crafts, garden-ready plants, and eye-catching shrubs. No one went hungry, thanks to the now very much-enjoyed spread of tempting bacon and vegan butties, hot teas and coffees, and a dazzling selection of homemade cakes. Whether you came for a quiet cuppa or a spot of shopping, there was something for everyone to enjoy.

The LIFE Group would like to extend their great appreciation to its dedicated volunteers, whose energy and effort make each event not only possible but truly special. And of course, a big thank-you goes to all who come along and support these gatherings in their many forms.

Looking ahead, the June Coffee Morning will take place on Saturday 14th June at 10am. Then, in July, we're in for a real summer treat with the West Lutton Open Gardens and Village Scarecrow Event on Saturday 12th July.

We look forward to seeing you in West Lutton soon.

WOLD NEWTON – JUNE 2025

ALL SAINTS' CHURCH

8/6/25 10.00 a.m. Pentecost. Holy Communion, Rev. Barbara Hodgson.

22/6/25 11.00 a.m. Benefice Service of Holy Communion. (N.b. new time)

All information could alter, so if in any doubt please call one of the churchwardens: Anny 01262 470 287 or Julie 01262 470546. Also see www.achurchnearyou.

The church remains open daily for private prayer and contemplation; also for visitors wishing to experience its history and beauty as well as accessing the village Library/Book Exchange. (Light switches to the left of the door as you enter.)

THE HINGE BOX

This is in the church porch and continues to be very well supported, providing much needed food and essentials for struggling, local families. Based in Bridlington, the Hinge is now receiving more referrals from local authorities and is even busier than it was. All donations are very much appreciated. A can of beans, a bar of soap ... all become major and welcome gifts. This small village helps to keep many families from hunger and isolation.

WOLD NEWTON COMMUNITY FACEBOOK PAGE

This continues to provide much needed community information. Books and resources are now based in the church, which is opened every day by a large rota of volunteers.

Please find below a Press Release for our upcoming Photography Exhibition at Sledmere House and Gardens: Christopher Simon Sykes: On tour with the Rolling Stones 1975, which opens on Friday 13th June and runs until Sunday 6th July.

Christopher Simon Sykes: On tour with the Rolling Stones 1975.

A 50th anniversary exhibition of photographs of the Rolling Stones Tour of the Americas 1975 by Christopher Simon Sykes.

In June 1975, Christopher Sykes, joined the Rolling Stones Tour of the Americas, known as T.O.T.A '75. It was his first ever Rock n' Roll tour as a photographer, having previously specialised in photographing the interiors of Stately Homes. The job had come about after a chance meeting the Stones' financial manager, Prince Rupert Loewenstein, who told him that the band were looking for someone to put together a diary of their upcoming tour of the USA. After flying to America to meet the band and apply for the job, Christopher found himself back in England awaiting a decision that never seemed to come. When Prince Rupert told him that he thought the project wasn't going to happen, because he couldn't get Mick to make up his mind, he thought he'd call Mick anyway to hear the decision from the horse's mouth. "What, Rupert told you I didn't want you on the tour?" he said, pausing before adding "Well you call Rupert now and tell him I do want you to come!", which is how Christopher found himself in Milwaukee, Kansas, on June 8.

"You know going on tour is not like country life, Chrissie," commented Mick Jagger on his first day, and it certainly did turn out to be an eyeopener, with Christopher accompanying the band on their three-month tour of North America and Canada, playing 40 shows in 27 cities. "The first show I attended," he remembers, "they didn't have a security pass for me as I'd just arrived, so they put me to stand at the back of the stage in the huge outdoor arena. I kept pinching myself to remind myself that I was really there, and when the band walked on, and struck up the opening bars of Honkytonk Woman, I felt the hairs standing up on my arms!" The photographs that he took over the next few months were for use in a tour diary that was to be published the following year, and this exhibition showcases a selection of the best of them. They are a unique record of a memorable occasion.

This is a fantastic opportunity to see Christopher's behind-the-scenes images of the Rolling Stones from the 1975 tour, displayed in the Courtyard Room at Sledmere, for a limited time only.
